

NOW THAT THE BUFFALO'S GONE

Buffy Saint-Marie – 1964

Can you remember the times
That you have held your head high
and told all your friends of your Indian claim Proud good lady and proud good .....
Some great great grandfather from Indian blood came
and you feel in your heart for these ones

Oh it's written in books and in song that we've been mistreated and .....
Well over and over I hear those same words
from you good lady and you good .....
Well listen to me if you care where we stand
and you feel you're a part of these .....

When a war between nations is lost
the loser we know pays the .....
but even when Germany fell to your hands
consider dear lady, consider dear man
you left them their pride and you left them their .....
and what have you done to these .....

Has a change come about my dear man or are you still taking our .....
A treaty forever your senators sign
They do dear lady, they do dear .....
and the treaties are broken again and .....
and what will you do for these .....

Oh it's all in the past you can say
but it's still going on here .....
The governments now want the Navaho land
that of the Inuit and the Cheyenne It's here and it's now you can help us dear man
Now that the buffalo's gone.
